

OREGON, MISSOURI, CHAUTAUQUA, JULY 24 TO AUG. 1, 1909.

"CHAUTAUQUA TALKS BY EDITORIAL COMMITTEE."

R. C. BENTON, President.

HOME COMING DAY IS SET FOR TUESDAY, JULY 27.

We have arranged to make this, if possible, the Greatest Day of the Chautauqua. Some of our best people are working now on the music for that day. Robert Montgomery, Chairman of the Music Committee, has begun drilling a Chorus of 50 voices of our best singers to sing some old favorite songs. That will be a very pleasing feature of the exercises. Then comes W. J. Calfee, the Great Preacher-Lecturer. Subject, "The Brightest Spot On Earth." Read what they say about Mr. Calfee. Oakland Acorn, Oakland, Iowa: "Rev. W. J. Calfee is a typical, self made man, without other than sheer force of intellect. He has forced his way from an obscure country school teacher in Ringgold County, Iowa, to the front rank among the Pulpit Orators of the State. He is possessed of a magnificent presence, a fine physique, a splendid voice, and his style of oratory is captivating." El Paso Herald, El Paso, Texas: "Brother W. J. Calfee is every inch a man, big-hearted, unselfish, sympathetic, possessing all the qualities of a true gentleman." World Herald, Omaha, Nebraska: "Ideals and Purposes" by Rev. W. J. Calfee was a powerful, thoughtful and eloquent appeal." During the day we will have the "Honolulu Students" with us that will certainly please the people in a musical way. Then comes a lecture by Opie Read, one among the best entertainers on the American Platform. We give you only one quotation, and that from the Oskosh, Wisconsin, Daily Northwestern:

R. G. RULEY, Secretary.

"OPIE READ was the whole show. Being a Southerner himself, the Southern dialect comes to him freely and naturally and almost unconsciously, and his interpretation of the negro dialect is especially true and rich. He is equally at home representing the Kentucky colonel. Mr. Read is a man whose proportions are very large and he towers above the man of ordinary stature like a giant. His personal appearance is such that he would attract attention anywhere. His hair is long and black and somewhat bushy. As he wears a broad brimmed hat of Southern style, his general appearance is very much of the Kentucky colonel sort he writes about. He is brimful of humor at all times, and his stock of witty remarks and bright stories is never exhausted."

OPIE READ.

Then we will have Will M. Maupin, poet, editor and writer, who is known all over the country as one of the ablest of newspaper men. Many Holt County people know him. Judge S. F. O'Fallon will also deliver an address, as well as Hiram Hershberger of Eskridge, Kansas. We will also have our former townsman, W. E. Crampton, in one of his delightful "Chalk Talks." The Thomas Twins will sing. Now, what do you think of this program? It is certainly a great one. Everybody bring a basket of grub for HOME-COMERS and we will have the greatest social event in the history of the old town of Oregon. Come smiling and greet your old friends once more, as becomes a true and patriotic resident of Old Holt. They are sure to be here. And the price is still only 35 cents for one day, or $2.00 for the entire season. It is worth a Dollar to be present this one day. Put the chickens up to fatten right now.

H. HERSHBERGER.

HON. SAM F. O'FALLON.

WM. M. MAUPIN.

—Notice change in T. L. Price's ad.
—Littleton Darnell, of Mound City, was here Monday.

—Otto Fuhrman spent several days in Omaha this week, visiting his friend, Adolph Geil.

—Mrs. Will Way and two children, of St. Joseph, are the guests of Mrs. Andy Burrier.

—Miss Mae Wenger, of Warrensburg, was the guest of Miss Mae Zachman, the past week.

—Dr. Chandler reports a daughter born to B. P. Leach and wife, of Forest City, July 6, 1909.

—Miss Mary Zook entertained the "Fudgers" at dinner, Wednesday evening, in honor of her birthday.

—Mrs. J. R. Adkins and son, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, are here enjoying a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. A. Netherland.

—All singers; altos, sopranos, basses, tenors, are earnestly requested to meet at the Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening, at 7.30 o'clock.

—Leona Crouser, daughter of Ben Crouser and wife, and Arthur Miller, of Forest City, were granted license to marry in St. Joseph Tuesday of this week, July 6, 1909. We offer congratulations.

—County Engineer Morris was up to Corning for a few days last week, where he was measuring the railroad track and switches, for the purpose of getting the line properly on the county map which he is now making.

—From information we glean that cards have been received here to the wedding of John Wesley Kiplinger and Miss Emma Loomis Stephenson, of New York, which will occur in that city, Monday, July 26, 1909.

—William Greiner and family, of Cook, Neb., are here on a visit with their parents, Uncle Andrew Greiner and wife, and John Seyfert and wife. It was a great satisfaction to them to find their parents all in good health. Father Greiner reached his 88th milestone last January and enjoys especially good health for one of his years. He enjoys his reading and keeps in touch with the events of the day. He has been a resident of our county for the past 43 years, coming to this county direct from "der Faterland," his wife coming with him, having married in his native country in 1860, and if they are both spared to February next, they will celebrate their golden wedding. Their many friends will wish that this may be their lot.

—Mrs. Maggie Darsey and two children, of Quincy, Ills., are here visiting relatives and friends. She will be remembered as Miss Maggie Perkins, who married Elder Darsey, formerly pastor of the Christian church.

—John Keeves, as well as his papa, are certainly delighted over the result of the trans-continental auto race, which came to an end at Seattle, Wash., Wednesday of last week, the honors going to the Ford car, making the trip from New York to Seattle in 22 days and 55 minutes.

—Maurine B. Bruntmeyer, of Whitefish, Mont., conductor on The Great Northern, is visiting his mother, Mrs. John Carder, south of Mound City. He was raised by Fred Bruntmeyer and wife, living north of Oregon and this is his first visit home for about 12 years.

—Spillman Riggs, one of the platform managers for our chautauqua, in a letter to Secretary Ruley says, that he'll sure be here to fill his part, and compliments the management by saying our management has "a great program," "one of the best I ever saw." Get your season tickets early—only $2.00; less than 3 cents a number. You'll live longer and you'll die happier.

—Twenty-four persons maimed and burned—most of them small boys, and two of the victims suffering from injuries which may result fatally, is a summary of the way St. Joseph rejoiced over the nation's liberty. The total list of victims exceeds the record of a year ago, and shows the "sane Fourth" idea is far from being general. Here in our own city, Lee Thompson, aged 23, had one of his eyes slightly injured. In the St. Joseph list of casualties, we are sorry to see the name of our old friend, Elliott Marshall, who had his arm hurt by a giant cracker.

—Al, son of James Cordrey, while out buggy riding Sunday last, July 4th, met with an accident that came near ending his earthly career. When a short distance above Forbes his horse became unmanageable, and ran away, throwing him out of the vehicle and dragging him quite a ways along the roadway, and finally succeeded in getting away from him. The team ran for some distance and got up on the railroad track, where they were overtaken by a northbound train which completely demolished the buggy and killed both horses. Al was badly bruised and was taken to his home, where he will be laid up for repairs for a week or so.

—Dr. Wood informs us of the birth of a son on June 29th, to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Randall.

—Are you a basso profundo, by jingo, or a tenor, or mezzo, then let us know all about it by being at the Presbyterian church, next Tuesday evening, July 13th; 7.30 o'clock. Let us have a chorus on Home Coming Day, that will make a dragable out of the mammoth audience tent.

—The heavy rain of Sunday last, June 27th, raised Davis Creek the highest it has been this spring; it was nearly bank full south of the bridge which is the highest part of the levee. Just back of the canning factory, the levee broke, and part of Jim town was flooded, but outside of the loss of a few chickens, not much damage was done to that part of town. —Jeffersonian, July 2d, 1909.

—Mrs. M. R. Ross, of 506 W. Front street, is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Margaret Muxlow, of Omaha, Neb., and her niece, Mrs. Nellie Morris, and son, Oakley, of Oregon, Mo., for some time. Mrs. Muxlow was met here by her sister, Mrs. Ellen Rinehart, of Decatur, and brother, William Carnell, of Vandalia. This is the first time in 40 years the brothers and sisters have all been together. —Bloomington, Ills., Bulletin.

—The Burlington Route has been chosen by the G. A. R. department as the official route for the state to take the Commander's train to the national encampment at Salt Lake, August 9, 10, 11 and 12. The various posts of the state will congregate at St. Joseph and will leave on a special train, leaving St. Joseph at 8 a. m. on Saturday, August 7th, arriving at Salt Lake at 7 a. m. on August 9th. Division Passenger Agent, J. D. Baker, at St. Joseph, is busy completing the details of the trip. Wm. M. Morris and Henry Peret expect to go.

—A large number of our farmers have lighted their homes with acetylene gas, and have installed complete plants, many extending the lights into their large barns and other out-buildings. Among those who are now using the lights are E. Oppenlander, Chas. Anselment, J. B. Campbell, Phil Schlotzhauer, E. W. Headley, Albert Markt, Alfred Bahler and Geo. Patterson. Those who have contracted and will soon have their plants completed are: John Feuerbacher, Jas. Bucher, Pete Galbreath, Wesley Zachman, James Curtis, James Meyer, Chris Imboden, John Taylor and Robert Kneale.

All Singers Should Sing.

The storm Tuesday evening prevented many from attending the meeting at the Presbyterian church for the purpose of organizing a chorus for Home Coming Day. Several enthusiasts were present, however, and preliminaries were made, but it is all important that every gentleman and lady who can sing should take hold of this matter with enthusiasm and a hearty good will, and the invitation is open to all to take part. We should have a chorus of at least 100 voices, for we surely have that many of really good singers in the old town. Plenty of books will be provided and now it is earnestly desired that every singer show up at the Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening, July 13th, at 7.30 o'clock. Every Oregonite, who can sing, should have enough local pride in them to be present and take part, and make this feature one of the brightest of Home Coming Day.

New Point and Vicinity.

—Anna Planalp, the Fillmore central, spent the 4th at home.
—Lester Painter made a flying trip to New Point Thursday evening.
—Mrs. Will Acton and daughter, Irene, went to St. Joseph Friday.
—J. W. and Ed Davis and Amos Lentz, were in St. Joseph this week.
—A. E. Kelley and family went to Maitland Saturday, to visit Mr. K's parents.
—Ralph Meyer and family spent the 4th with Grandpa Poynter, who is very sick.

—In spite of the rain and muddy roads, a goodly number went to Oregon to celebrate.

—Lloyd Davis, of Kansas City, is visiting his grand parents, J. W. Davis, and wife.

—Messrs. Dan and Albert Dreher, and Munn were out Tuesday eve to install officers in the I. O. O. F. lodge.

—We had very heavy rains Tuesday, and the creek overflowed almost as badly as it did seven years ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Vener and baby, of Mound City, spent Saturday and Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Terry.

NERO.

—Miss Norma Roth, who will be remembered as having visited Miss Hortense Dungan several times, last week announced her engagement at her home in Unionville, to Mr. Ben Mullins, of Linneus, Mo. The wedding will be in October.

Executrix.

This 9th day of July, 1909.
—Earl Gillis and John Huitt, of Mound City, spent celebration day here.

Be Sure to Register.

The Home-Coming visitors are earnestly requested to register. Books will be provided for this purpose and the Chautauqua management will provide a suitable tent and all conveniences, with a suitable committee on information to assist all the Home-Comingers in finding former friends. Those entertaining visitors are requested to see that they are registered and assist them in every way.

—We mentioned some two weeks ago of the sale of the Bridgman hardware stock at Bigelow, to Messrs. Shelton & Laughley, of Kansas. Last week they sold to William Minton, taking a lot of Kansas land in the deal.
